FOREWORD

For the past four years the members of the present Senior Class have been under the constant care and guidance of the Mayodan High School. It has been the aim and desire of the faculty and administration to implant into their minds and hearts those ideals which lead to a deeper understanding of life and a greater appreciation of service to humanity. We trust, therefore, that their experiences here have not been merely that of so called booklearning, but that their characters have been so nutured and developed that they will go out and make the world better by their having lived.

The faculty, the members of the School Board, and the citizens of the community are proud of our graduates. We are sending them out into the vast university of experience, and we trust that they will live such noble lives of usefulness that will make us proud to call them our boys and girls. Never before have graduates of this institution faced a greater opportunity to serve their fellowman than at this time of stress and misunderstanding throughout the whole world. We trust that they will accept the challenge of service that becomes them on every side and that they will never shirk when duty calls.

In spite of the discouraging pitfalls that may seem to lie ahead there is still much to live for; there are greater hopes and aspirations for the future than the world has ever known before. Beyond the horizon of chaos and turmoil the sun is yet shining. Beyond the dismal clouds of war and darkness there is still hope and love, and we can give to the world the best that is in us. Let us have faith in ourselves, faith in our fellowmen, faith in God. Through faith we can develop a mighty bulwork against the evils and adversities of the modern world.

We are ever mindful of our boys and girls who are now defending Old Glory in the uttermost parts of the earth. Some have already made the supreme sacrifice, and we pause with bowed heads and heavy hearts to pay tribute to their sacred memory. We trust that their sacrifice shall not be in vain, but that every effort both of the living and the dead shall lead to a great and lasting peace.

We now send the members of the class of 1945 out from the Mayodan High School with the hope that they will prove worthy of the faith and confidence we have bestowed in them. May God bless them, and may they go forth as heralds of Peace and Goodwill.

CLASS PROPHECY

1. Peggy Cardwell, after 15 years of High School and 13 years of college, has settled down to a quiet life teaching at the great high school of Mayo.

2. Marie Cooke, after finishing school, took a job with the Washington Mills and since has become the superintendent.

3. Jane Carter, after trying hard and pulling all the tricks she knew to get her man, failed, so she turned to her old profession of nursing.

4. Charles Case, after many years of debating and speaking, has finally reached his ambition as President and Commander-in-chief.

5. Polly Faucette, president of the seniors didn't give up politics, now she holds the position of Vice President of the U. S. (The first Woman)

10. Alma Landreth, has at last bought what she always wanted, a big beauty shop. Please trade with her. (Best for less).

CLASS HISTORY

On the ninth of September 1941, we, a class of fifty pupils, entered Mayodan High School. We were unacustomed to the routine of high school and we made many mistakes. But before long we were adjusted to all the new situations, thanks to Miss Pauline Hawley, who was our home room teacher in the first year of high school.

The second year we knew everything or at least thought we did. But every one passed us by as "little sophomores." Our home room teacher this year was Miss Eleanor Hutchinson, and we are still grateful to her for showing us our way into the tenth grade, there we learned that we were not the all of Mayodan High School.

The third year our teacher was Mrs. M. L. Hall, an excellent teacher, who really helped us get ready for the Junior-Senior Banquet of 1944, which was an exciting time for all of us.

At last we came to the big year, the year we were to be seniors. By this time nearly thirty pupils had dropped out of our class. Some went to work in various places and others had left their education to serve their country.

Yet after all of these had dropped out, what was left of us worked in earnest trying to make the senior class the best class in school. Mrs. Sam Fagge, our teacher, made this possible by helping us.

We are grateful to Mr. Duncan, our principal, and to all the rest of the faculty of Mayodan High School for making our education possible.

Our class began the year with thirty two pupils. Two of our boy , Roy Atkins and T. C. Black, are now in the armed forces. Others who have left school are Johnny Holt and Thelma Trent.

The first social was a weiner roast held at Avalon at the first of the year. Later a party was enjoyed in the home economics room. Our Christmas party was at Beverly Johnson's where gifts were exchanged and where everyone had a most enjoyable time. During the year the class has been working toward a large bank account in anticipation of an elaborate Junior-Senior Banquet to be given in the late spring.

Mid-term examinations were endured the last week in January. For some they were difficult, but not for those who were exempt.

The Junior class has had a good P. T. A. attendance thus far and has won five of the six dollars given for the largest percentage in attendance.

Several of the boys and girls in the class have been taking great interest in basket ball during the season. They have been greatly helped by Ed Reynolds and "Red" Drake whose services were invaluable to the teams. Representatives from the Junior class on the ball teams are: Girls - Edith Barrow, Beverly Johnson, Mickey Atkins, Betty A. Rader, Martene Smith and Edna Glidewell. Boys - Bobby Joyce, Edgie Richardson, Billy Hicks and Toby Griffin.

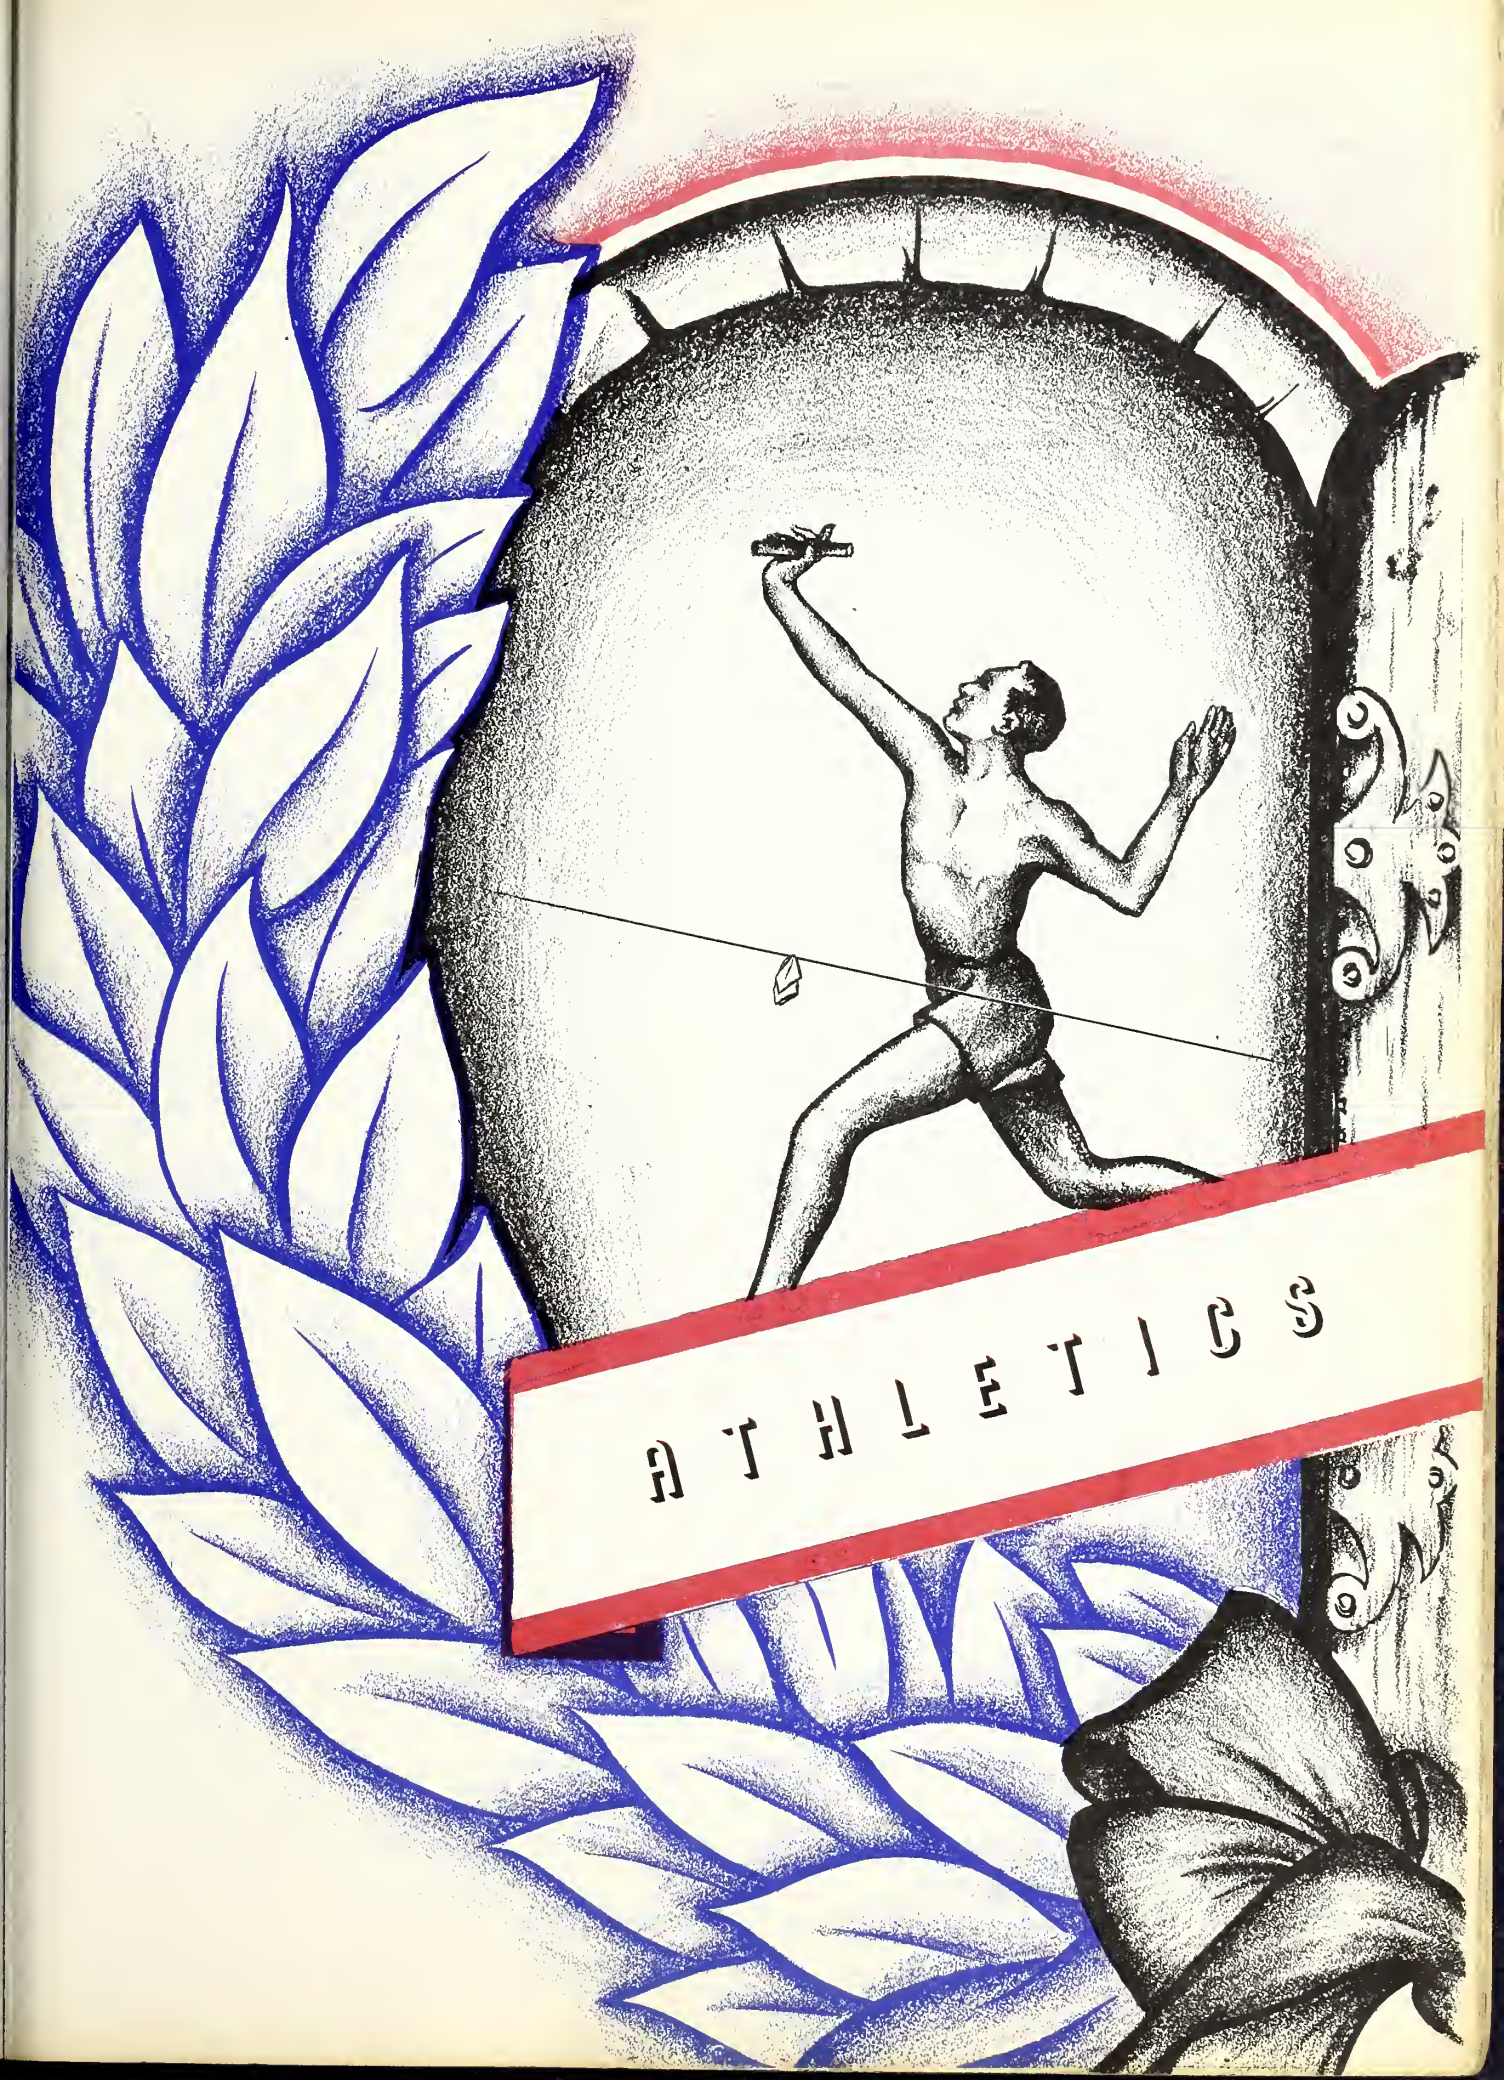
We Freshmen, starting this year off with forty four pupils, have made a very good start in high school. Our home room teacher being Miss Lorraine Shropshire, the commercial teacher.

We found that high school was not so very different from grammar school, although we change teachers every hour. We had a Christmas party in the home economics department, where gifts were exchanged and refreshments were served.

Our class was very interested in basket-ball this year as we could play on the varsity team. Those earning suits were: Viola Case, Margaret Martin, Marie Perdue, and Edna East. The boys were: Donny Montgomery, Ralph Anderson, Bill Robertson, Ray Martin, and Glenn Reddick.

The class, as a whole, has had a very successful year in high school and is looking forward to many more.



ATHLETICS

BOYS BASKET-BALL

Coach--John Oliver Drake
Manager--Bryce Hurd
Referee--Joseph Moore
Players--Billy Hicks, Sammy Sharron, Lonny Montgomery, Toby Griffin, Billy Robertson, Bobby Joyce, Ray Martin, Ralph Anderson and Eldrige Richardson.

The boys team opened this year with the loss of three good players, Curtis, Shag and Jimmy. This hurt the team a lot, but they worked hard and got a good team.

They started out the first of the year with about fifteen going out for the team, but in the end they had nine left.

With the help of their coach and their team work the boys won 12 games and lost 3. In the tournament the boys won the first game over Ruffin with a score of 40 to 32, in the second game the boys lost to the boys of Stoneville High School with a score of 27 to 29. So this coming year the team will only lose one of their players, so they can work hard and look forward to having a better team next year.

The girls started basketball this year with all the veterans returning except one.

The practices were hard and streneous but the results were pleasing. During the regular season the girls played fifteen games winning seven and losing eight.

In the tournament, the girls were not successful as they lost their first game in the county race.

Having a better team this year over last year and losing only one of the best players, Alma Landreth, we hope to have a better team next year.

The Beta Club is primarily an honor organization in our school. One must maintain and keep an average of 85 or higher in order to become a member. He is also judged by certain principles of character by the old members who vote each member into the club.

At the first meeting the club set its aims and standards for the year. They were: (1) keeping the school grounds clean, (2) keeping the bulletin boards attractive, and (3) being helpful in every possible way.

There were three social meetings held during the year. Hostesses were: Alma Landreth, Molly Webb, and Helen Murray.
